

INFO BULLETIN

UPDATE OF CANDIDATES AND ACCLAMATIONS FOR THE 2024 PCMNO ELECTION

We would like to inform you of a recent development in the Provisional Council of the Métis Nation of Ontario (PCMNO) election. One of the candidates for the Secretary-Treasurer position of the Veterans Council has withdrawn their candidacy. Consequently, the position is no longer contested.

We are pleased to announce that Ted Mitchell has been elected to the Secretary-Treasurer position of the Métis Nation of Ontario Veterans Council by acclamation.

Should you have any questions, please contact the Chief Electoral Officer at Election@metisnation.org.

For an updated list of official candidates and acclamations for the Provisional Council of the Métis Nation of Ontario election, please click here.

We are excited to share that online and telephone voting will commence on April 8, 2024, starting at 8:30 AM Eastern Time. The voting period will remain open until May 6, 2024, 6:00 PM Eastern Time.

The results of the 2024 PCMNO election will be announced on May 6, 2024. For any further information or inquiries regarding the election process, please visit www.Metisnation.org/Election.