A Message of Gratitude, Reflection, & Hope for the New Year

As we greet the New Year -- 2024 -- I am filled with gratitude and pride for the Métis Nation of Ontario. Last year, as every year, was a journey marked by challenges and triumphs. But it is our enduring Métis spirit – resilient and strong – that will continue to see us through the years ahead.

Some highlights of 2023 were the signing of the Métis Government Recognition and Self-Government Implementation Agreement last February and the progress made with Bill C-53, the federal legislation recognizing our Métis self-government. This significant legislation will open new avenues for our rights and be a milestone moment in our continuous march towards self-government.

While there have been obstacles along this path and challenges, we remain strong. We are Métis, and we are proud.

And, just as we have done for 200 years, we will endure.

I'd like to once again thank our communities who have mobilized in inspiring ways in support of Bill C-53 and our inherent rights. The outpouring of support for this legislation has been unprecedented and it is all thanks to you.

As we reflect on the past, let's hold in our hearts those moments that brought us together and the challenges we have overcome. These experiences, joyous and difficult, weave us together like the threads of the Métis sash. 2023 marked the 30th anniversary of the MNO, and we should be incredibly proud of the work we have done to fulfill the dreams of our ancestors.

I extend a heartfelt thank you to each of you for your dedication, passion, and commitment to our Nation. Your contributions are what make our community vibrant and thriving.

Looking forward, let's carry the momentum of the past year into the next.

Marsii

President, Métis Nation of Ontario

Fighting for Bill C-53

Our Federal Métis Self-Government Legislation

The passage of Bill C-53 remains a significant focus of our collective advocacy, pivotal to our reconciliation efforts with Canada.

Bill C-53, our Métis self-government federal recognition legislation, was introduced on June 21st by unanimous consent. That means that no Member of Parliament opposed its introduction. All parties supported it. It was deemed to have passed first and second reading and was referred over to committee for study.

The Bill affirms the self-government agreements Canada signed with three Métis governments – the Métis Nation of Ontario, the Métis Nation-Saskatchewan, and the Métis Nation of Alberta.

These self-government agreements recognize our Métis governments' jurisdiction and authority over internal governance matters, such as Métis citizenship, Métis elections, Métis governance structures, and Métis child and family services.

The MNO has met with parliamentarians from all parties on Bill C-53, and we have been doing everything in our power to get the bill over the finish line.

But, while the Bill has been in front of committee, there have been some significant delays.

The delay in passing Bill C-53 is more than an administrative hurdle; it directly impacts the well-being of Métis communities and our citizens. It also delays our elders witnessing their life's work to see our people take our rightful place within Confederation and has subjected our youth to harassment.

This is unacceptable.

While our conversations with government are largely positive and supportive, there is unfortunately some strong opposition to this Bill coming from some vocal First Nations leaders that are complicating matters.

The outreach to the Ontario Chiefs has not been fruitful and has been met with deafening silence.

It is important to point out that it is not ALL First Nations speaking against Métis self-government -- and also that the things being said by some are certainly not the perspective of all First Nations people. Much of what is being said is quite upsetting, offensive and rife with misinformation.

Everyone who added their voices through written submissions to the committees – you have helped us tremendously in breaking through to parliamentarians about what this bill means.

There is still more to do, and we will continue to persevere, because the Métis never back down from a challenge! So, we say, bring it on!

Our response to the challenges around Bill C-53 must be as united and forceful as ever.

We want to continue to flood parliamentarians with positive voices, speaking in support of Métis self-government once the committee work starts again at the end of January 2024, and we will be engaging with MNO citizens, in doing that work. So, stay tuned for more on how you'll be able to help.

Once the committee study is concluded, the House will have the chance to examine and potentially amend Bill C-53. "Third reading" is the House's final look at the Bill before it is sent to the Senate. This legislative process then repeats in the Senate before a Bill receives Royal Assent and becomes law.

Reconciliation is not just a matter of political expediency and box checking for the Government of Canada, it is a moral imperative that underpins the very fabric of our Nation. ∞

Delegates paddle up the Ottawa River to the opening ceremonies of the MNO 30th Annual General Assembly.

Much to celebrate at the 30th MNO Annual Assembly

The MNO held its 30th Annual General Assembly (AGA) on August 17th to 20th in Ottawa. The AGA brought together hundreds of Métis citizens from across the province and marked a historic milestone for the MNO as a Métis government.

“Over the last 30 years, we have faced many challenges as a Métis government in a province that used to deny our very existence. By staying true to our Statement of Prime Purpose—and working together—we signed an agreement with Canada earlier this year that formally recognizes the MNO as a Métis government. Unquestionably, we have much to celebrate at this AGA!” said MNO President Margaret Froh.

In 1993, the MNO began with two staff and its head office was located in the attic of the former MNO President’s home. It now has over 35 offices across Ontario, close to 450 staff, delivers programs and services to its citizens in the areas of employment, training, housing, economic development, health and many other sectors, and manages annual budgets of over $130 million. The MNO has also negotiated agreements with other governments dealing with Métis harvesting rights, Crown consultation and reconciliation.

As a part of the MNO’s celebrations, former MNO Presidents Tony Belcourt (1993-2008) and Gary Lipinski (2008-2016) joined the AGA and shared their insights on just how far the MNO has come in only three decades. In addition, the 7th Annual Métis Youth Leadership Conference was held by the MNO Youth Council in advance of the AGA. ∞

Commemorating the 20th anniversary of the history-making Powley decision

September 19th, 2023, marked the 20th anniversary of the landmark Powley Decision, a pivotal moment in Canadian legal history. In 2003, the unanimous Supreme Court ruling in R v. Powley cemented a watershed victory for Métis rights recognition.

On September 16th the new documentary Hunt for Justice: The Powley Story was premiered in Sault Ste. Marie. A public online screening accessible via Facebook and YouTube, took place on Powley Day, September 19 (see the sidebar to watch the documentary now).

This powerful film by renowned Métis filmmaker Matt LeMay of Indigenous Geographic captures the 10-year legal battle that ultimately led to the groundbreaking 2003 decision. It all began when two MNO citizens – a father and son, Steve and Roddy Powley—faced charges for hunting a moose to feed their family near Sault Ste. Marie. With support from the MNO, the Powleys courageously defended themselves in court, ultimately propelling the case to the Supreme Court of Canada. The impacts of the Court's decision continue to resonate today for Métis people.

Throughout the Powley's decade-long "Hunt for Justice," a total of 14 judges resolutely affirmed the existence of a rights-bearing historic Métis community in the Sault Ste. Marie region of Ontario, underscoring the community's inherent right to hunt, as protected by Section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982.

Hunt for Justice: The Powley Story offers an evocative portrayal of the Powley case, seamlessly blending archival footage and interviews with Steve Powley and other family members. Enhanced by research and illuminating commentary from trial judges, contemporary leaders, and esteemed experts involved in the case, the documentary provides the definitive account of this historic legal battle.

Also marking the 20th anniversary of Powley, the MNO hosted a Métis Rights Conference from November 5 to 8, 2023 at the Delta Hotel Waterfront in Sault Ste. Marie (see more on page 8).

The Powley Decision remains foundational for Métis rights and recognition across Canada by creating a legal framework for recognizing constitutionally-protected Métis rights. ∞

Métis Hunt for Justice: the Powley Story: This documentary tells the story of the struggle of Ontario Métis against marginalization and the denial of our very existence, and the immense impact of the Powley case.

INFORMATION FROM ONEFEATHER:

Summary of security protocols for electronic and phone voting

I am pleased to share with you a summary of OneFeather's security protocols for electronic and phone voting. OneFeather is cloud based software designed with the most current and leading cyber security technologies and data protection architecture available. All of our software also utilizes the latest encrypted technologies in all transmissions and storage, and moreover we utilize Canadian AWS servers (including multiple firewalls) – ensuring the best data protection measures available.

Voters wishing to access either electronic or telephone voting may only do so following activation of their OneFeather profile which utilizes a number of steps to authenticate and verify a voter's identity. Once this step is completed - which includes a traditional 2-step verification process - the eligible voter is then also provided a PIN (personal identification number) unique to the voter and to the voting event. If the voter does not have an email and wishes to vote by phone, we provide their PIN directly to the voter following a verification process over the phone.

In order to vote successfully the eligible voter must utilize the secure voting link to ballot we provide or the toll-free number, along with their Citizenship No, Date of Birth and the PIN. If anyone of these critical pieces is absent or otherwise used incorrectly – the voter will not be permitted to Vote, and the Chief Electoral Officer will be notified of any flagged citizens experiencing voting difficulties.

Other security features limit the use of only one (1) email to be used per voter – emails can not be shared or used by more than one eligible voter. We also have a number of security features which monitor 24/7/365 IP use (your computer or smart device), and brute force attacks or other attempts by bad actors to compromise the voting event. Finally, our systems track each vote, all voter activity and each voting attempt in an immutable ledger for audit and appeal purposes if needed.

OneFeather is also designed to ensure that each eligible voter is able to vote only once for the prescribed ballots for which they are entitled to vote. We accomplish this through some sophisticated and innovative software development which essentially pairs 'tags' between ballots and voter data – effectively revealing only the ballots available to that voter and making ineligible ballots inaccessible.

While no online or digital solutions can guarantee 100% impenetrability to bad actors and unscrupulous types, we are very proud of our track record and continue to invest in the best security features and protocols available to ensure your successful voting event.

— Lawrence Lewis,

30 years of success Highlights of '23 at the Métis Nation of Ontario

Fall Early Learners Camp: In September, Métis early learners and their families enjoyed all that autumn in Ontario has to offer at the Canadian Ecological Center. The trees put on a show of orange at the MNO's Early Learners Fall Camp for the National Day of Truth and Reconciliation as Métis families came together. Campers participated in Orange Shirt Day activities and a reconciliation walk. To read the recap and see more images, visit: <https://bit.ly/FallCamp2023MNO>

BACK-2-SCHOOL: For the fourth year running, MNO distributed 1,000 Back to School Kits to support young Métis citizens from JK to Grade 6! Our Early Learning and Child Care team's program eases the burden for families and ensures Métis students have a great start to the school year. Each kit contained back to school essentials such as a lunch kit, stationary, and a gift card.

Youth Leadership Award: The MNO would like to offer its congratulations to Hayden Stenlund on receiving the 2023 MNO Youth Council's Leadership Award. Whether it's his work as a councillor on the Kenora Métis Council, learning his Michif language and even monitoring and protecting the waterways of his traditional territory, Hayden is a shining example of the work our young MNO citizens do to celebrate their culture and way of life. Congratulations Hayden and keep up the fantastic work!

Breaking Ground: The MNO celebrated a significant milestone in October with the launch of an affordable housing development project in Midland, ON. The project is a testament to the collaborative efforts of MNO and our dedicated partners. The event was graced by MNO and local leaders including PCMNO Chair Hank Rowlinson, Midland Mayor Bill Gordon, and Simcoe North Representative Leslie Stroud, who conveyed congratulations on behalf of MPP Jill Dunlop. Guided by the theme "Looking Back, Moving Forward," the speakers reflected on the political history of the MNO, the progress of Métis Self-Government and explored next steps for securing Métis rights and recognition in Canada. The conference also featured cultural activities, a memorial feast, a vendors market and "The Soirée in the Soo" - a night of Métis-inspired cuisine and entertainment.

Crown-Métis Summit: In June, MNO leadership joined Prime Minister Justin Trudeau and his Cabinet and other MNC governing members at the Crown-Métis Nation Summit. Great work was done on continuing to advance our shared priorities.

Baby Bundle Kits: This year's new and improved baby bundle kits were filled with amazing products for Métis parents! Infinite Reach Orientation: The MNO's Infinite Reach program empowers upper year post-secondary Métis students to lead cultural initiatives on their campuses and make the transition to post-secondary smoother for new Métis students. This fall, a fresh cohort of Infinite Reach facilitators came to Ottawa for orientation. Workshops and discussions provided tools and knowledge to help facilitators foster a welcoming and inclusive environment for Métis students to help them better navigate post-secondary life.

The Great Rendezvous: Hundreds of visitors and historic reenactors from across North America gathered at Fort William Historical Park - Parc historique du Fort William in Thunder Bay to participate in a re-enactment of the Great Rendezvous of 1816. This July, the Rendezvous brought history to life by taking visitors back to the vibrant fur trade era through hands-on workshops, demonstrations, music, dancing and traditional hospitality. Local, regional and provincial MNO leadership were on hand to bring greetings and participate in the festivities.

I hope you and your family had a great year and I wish you a healthy and prosperous 2024. May the spirit of the 'Métis joie de vivre' be with you all year long!

We've come a long way on our shared journey toward self-government and self-determination. The all-important Bill C-53 is now before Parliament.

YOU can help support Métis Self-Government by sending a letter to your local MP and Senator to support the passing of Bill C-53 (www.billc53.ca). Once Bill C-53 is passed, you will see more of me on social media and at a location near you! This will be the start of a conversation on what OUR government and constitution will look like.

How exciting!

Soon, we will all roll up our sleeves and get in the canoe to build the nation we all want, and for the generations to come.

Métis Nation
of Ontario
30th Anniversary

PLEBISCITE and SPECIAL GENERAL ASSEMBLY: On Saturday, June 17, 2023, the Métis Nation of Ontario held a Special Assembly in Toronto, Ontario to follow through on the next steps related to the Registry Review process and the results of its province-wide Plebiscite in relation to the removal of MNO citizens with incomplete files from the MNO Registry. A total of 538 citizens registered and attended the Special Assembly. A total of 516 citizens voted on the Special Resolution during the Ballot Box Vote. Of those citizens who voted, a total 455 citizens voted "In Favour" of the Special Resolution. A total of 59 MNO citizens voted "Opposed." A total of 2 ballots were deemed "Spoiled." These results further reiterate the clear democratic will of MNO citizens provided through the Plebiscite.

For full details on the Special General Assembly visit the MNO website:

Two-Spirit LGBTQ+: The MNO would like to extend their congratulations to the MNO's Two-Spirit working group in their transformation into an interim council! Through this mechanism the interim council now has more tools to help continue the MNO's work to foster an inclusive and safe environment for all of our Two-Spirit+ MNO citizens!

MNO Women's Council: The MNO Women's Council (MNOWC) held their Annual General Meeting on August 17 in Ottawa. Attending leadership, included MNOWC President Suzanne Jackson and Les Femmes Michif Otipemisiwak President Melanie Omeniho. MNO President Froh provided greetings and opening remarks. Attendees reviewed policy, draft charters and community codes, and heard reports from regional reps and leadership. Marsii to our women leaders!

Women Honouring Women Award: A big congratulations to Métis Nation of Ontario citizen and President of the Temiskaming Métis Community Council Lorette McKnight, who was this year's Women Honouring Women Award recipient! More here: <https://bit.ly/3ZdEdlw>

Native Bee Monitoring Program: This summer the MNO Native Bee Monitoring Project generated a lot of buzz in our communities! In fact, due to the tremendous popularity of the project, supplies were quick to run out and some would-be apiarists missed out. So, the Thames Bluewater Métis Council flew into action to expand the initiative in their community. More at: <https://bit.ly/448TV9w>

Past MNO President Gary Lipinski Honoured: On June 6, 2023 former president of the MNO, Gary Lipinski, was among five accomplished Canadians receiving honorary degrees at Wilfrid Laurier University's 2023 spring convocation ceremonies. Lipinski retired in 2016 after more than two decades as an elected representative within the MNO, including two successful terms as MNO President. He left a legacy of advocacy that improved the quality of life of Ontario Métis children, youth, families, and communities. More here: <https://bit.ly/GaryLipinskiAward>

Adventures on Georgian Bay: In July, MNO President Margaret Froh joined Métis youth from across the province at the MNO's Canoe Experience Camp! Nine Métis youth paddled in the wake of their ancestors, savouring the splendor of Georgian Bay, connecting with Métis peers, and creating memories! Special thanks goes to Awenda Provincial Park -- which provided the camping space for the youth free of charge, and to Challenges Canada for their partnership in this incredible camp experience.

This is just a small portion of the incredible news, events, and initiatives that took place in MNO's 30th year. We're eager to hear about what's happening in your region and community. Share your stories with us at CommOps@metisnation.org!
