

Causes and Effects of Decisions Made:
Louis Riel, the Canadian Government and the Métis People

| Event | Brief Description | Cause Why did this happen? | Effect What resulted from this event— short term and/or long term |
|---|--------------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| Red River Resistance 1869–70 | | | |
| Trial and Execution of Thomas Scott | | | |
| Passing of the Manitoba Act 1870 | | | |
| Reign of Terror in Red River after Resistance | | | |
| Murder of Métis Elzear Goulet | | | |
| Métis are dispossessed of land in Red River and dispersed | | | |
| Riel is elected to Parliament but is not able to take his seat 1873–1874 | | | |
| Northwest Resistance 1885 | | | |
| Louis Riel Trial and Execution in 1885 | | | |
| Métis go into hiding | | | |