

National Indigenous Veterans Day - November 8

Remembrance Day - November 11

Métis Significance

It was established in 1994 as a national day for recognition and remembrance of more than 200 years of military service in Canada by First Nation, Métis and Inuit communities.

As we mark Remembrance Day, we invite all to share in a moment of silence as we honour those who have bravely served in war and peace. Defending Canada and its people before there was Canada, our Métis veterans risked their own lives to protect the freedom of our nation and ensure the safety of our people. Our democracy today is built on their sacrifices. This November 11th, please take the time to thank our friends, neighbours, and all of our relations who have served and continue to serve. Lest we forget.

Recommended Resources for Elementary Schools

Title	Author	Grade	Where to buy
Grandpa's Girls	Campbell, N	K-4	Strong Nations

Recommended Websites or Videos for Research and Information

	Appropriate For
Who are the Métis? - Metis Nation of Ontario Who are the Metis?	Teacher / Secondary

	Appropriate For
Ep 3: One Nation, Many Veterans - Remembrance Day Podcast Link	Teacher / Secondary
MNO Veterans Council	Teachers/Students
Veterans Metis National Council	Teachers/Students
Thoughts on Indigenous Veterans' Day from MNO Veterans' Council President Brain Prairie	Teachers/Students

Additional Resources Available

- Métis Involvement: War of 1812 Lesson Plan and Teacher Guide - Gr 2-3, 6-7
- Métis Veterans War and Conflicts References
- Métis Veterans War and Conflict Part 1 and Part 2 Presentations
- Presentation Notes for Métis Veterans War and Conflict Part 1 and Part 2
- Grandpa's Girls translation list